CHSNE members and friends participated in a field trip to the National Archives & Records Administration (NARA) on December 5, 2009 where they received a tour of the facility and a lecture on the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882 given by a NARA archivist.

Participants were able to trace their genealogy by reviewing case files containing original immigration interrogation documents and photos. To view an on-line copy of Chinese Immigration and the Chinese in the United States go to:
